

Privacy Policy

When you visit our website, we collect certain information or data about you. Here's our promise to you on how we respect that data and keep it safe, in accordance with the current Data Protection legislation.

What we collect:

- Questions, queries or feedback you leave, including your email address if you contact us
- Your email address and subscription preferences when you sign up to our email alerts, and how you use our emails - for example whether you open them and which links you click on
- Information on how you use the site, using cookies and page tagging techniques.

This data can be viewed by authorised people from our suppliers, to:

- Improve the site by monitoring how you use it
- Gather feedback to improve our services, for example our email alerts
- Respond to any feedback you send us, if you've asked us to
- Send email alerts to users who request them

Where your data is stored

We store your data on secure servers in the European Economic Area (EEA).

Keeping your data secure

Sending information over the internet is generally not completely secure, and we can't guarantee the security of your data while it's in transit. Any data you send is at your own risk.

We have procedures and security features in place to keep your data secure once we receive it.

Disclosing your information

We may pass on your personal information if we have a legal obligation to do so, or if we have to enforce or apply our terms of use and other agreements. This includes exchanging information with government departments for legal reasons.

We won't share your information with any other organisations for marketing, market research or commercial purposes, and we don't pass on your details to other websites.

Your rights

You can find out what information we hold about you and ask us not to use any of the information we collect.

If you've signed up for email alerts, you can unsubscribe or change your settings at any time by selecting the 'unsubscribe' link that appears in every email.

If you wish to contact us about your data, please use the following address or email:
